

Meet Your Alabama Day Committee Chair

dlynnew1@gmail.com

205.681.2146

7512 Misty Lane, Pinson, AL 35126

Lynne Williams, Josiah Brunson Chapter, Trussville, AL

joined DAR in 2012, Lynne's first major chapter project was coordinating the 2014 grave marking of her Revolutionary War patriot. Following the completion of GEP I and GEP II, Lynne served two years as chapter registrar. She served the 2016-2018 term as chapter regent, and met the challenge when asked to design a new chapter website and closed Facebook page. Lynne won the ASDAR Women's Issues – Health Essay Contest in 2018. She has completed the Members Course, New Horizons Course, and currently serves her chapter as corresponding secretary. Lynne was honored to accept the position of Alabama Day Chair under State Regent Tammy Clemons, and her recommendation as NSDAR VAVS representative to the Birmingham Veterans Administration Medical Center under President General Denise Doring Van Buren for the 2019-2022 term.

Alabama Day Committee Essay Content

- Subject of essay should be pertinent to Alabama's past, present, or future, and composed to be used as an interesting DAR chapter program.
- Author must be a member of the Alabama Society Daughters of the American Revolution.
- Entry must be double-spaced and contain no more than 2500 words. (Bibliography and/or footnotes are not included in the word count.) Pages are to be numbered.
- Entry must be written expressly for this contest and must not have been submitted to anyone else prior to its being submitted to this committee.
- The essay must contain a bibliography, listing sources used for research.
- The essay must have a cover sheet listing:
 - a. Title of essay
 - b. Entrant's name, address, phone number, email address
 - c. Chapter name
 - d. Number of words in body of essay

Alabama Day Committee Essay Content

NOTE

DO NOT Attach a cover sheet onto the essay. Instead, fold and place into a separate blank envelope, sealed and enclosed in the large envelope with the unfolded essay.

This prevents the chair and judges from knowing the name of the author or the chapter she is representing until the judging has been completed.

Alabama Day Committee Essay Content Eligibility & Deadlines

Entries must be sent to this chair at the below address postmarked on or before December 31, 2020.

Essays will be not returned.

Decision of the judges is final.

Lynne Williams
7512 Misty Lane
Pinson, AL 35126

Alabama Day Committee Awards

- ASDAR Past Award Winners

2019 Kay R. Reyes, Chief Tuscaloosa Chapter, Tuscaloosa, AL

Essay Title: Gridiron Girls (Bama's Forgotten Female Footballers of the 1940's).

2018 Penny Chilton, Maple Hill Chapter, Huntsville, AL

Essay Title: Sally S. Wyatt Bibb Barnet, A Maternal Force Guiding Early Alabama Politics

Award winners will be recognized by this Committee Chair and presented a certificate of award by the State Regent at the ASDAR State Conference.